

Short message regarding Chapter 2

Hello readers,
it's YaoiOtsuki Translation Group.

Yesterday chapter 2 was released by an individual, we don't want to bring accusations in, nor blame anyone since some of you assumed that we blamed for this, so to say, stolen project.

We have the manga fully translated as we mentioned in public yesterday, however, some people saw us in the wrong that we questioned the translator of Chapter 2. We want to explain something.

YaoiOtsuki doesn't take on projects that are with ongoing translation or on hiatus, we don't want other scanner groups feeling the pressure of "I have to release it before someone else steals it" or "I have to release it because fans think of me as a person who neglects projects". Such thoughts, I assure you, cross any scanner's mind, with no exception. And that is very stressful.

We saw that someone suggested to defend the individual with, "We all thought the project was dropped....If you had it fully translated you had to say so". If someone cares to check whether a group has dropped a project, they can easily check that on their webpage/blog, there are 'dropped projects' listed and in our list, that manga wasn't listed. Also, there is a reason why every scanner group leaves a message to fans that they are in need of staff - because we all need staff. The reason for some projects to be delayed is exactly that, lacking staff members. YaoiOtsuki has around 5 fully translated projects that are not yet released and we cannot do so because we need staff. Despite all the images, messages, post and other tries to gather members - it was meant to state that "we could've said so".

Regarding the individual that didn't try to check whether we dropped a project or not, we want to tell you - please, contact us and any other scanner out there to ask. This way some of the hard work put, whether on your side or on our side, will go to waste. Nonetheless, thank you for translating Chapter 2. We respect other translators, so we want to show care. And I can't miss the chance to offer you to join us, dear translator of Chapter 2. In case you are interested, contact a staff member on YaoiOtsuki.

Kind regards,
YaoiOtsuki Staff
